

THE MINISTER OF FINANCE (SHRI P. CHIDAMBARAM) : (a) to (e). Reserve Bank of India (RBI) has reported that effective October 18, 1994, interest rates on loans by all commercial banks (excluding Regional Rural Banks) have been prescribed as follows :

Credit limit	Rate of Interest per annum
Loans upto Rs. 25000/-	12.0 per cent
Loans above Rs. 25000/- but upto Rs. 2 lakh.	13.5 per cent
Loans above Rs. 2 lakhs	Free*

excepting Export Credit for specified periods

RBI have advised banks to fix their Prime Lending Rate (PLR) which will be the minimum lending rate to be charged by them for credit limits over Rs. 2 lakh. Banks may charge higher rates of interest from their borrowers enjoying credit limit over Rs. 2 lakhs depending, inter alia, credit ratings assigned by the bank. In the monetary policy for the second half of 1996-97 announced by RBI in October, 1996, banks have also been advised that alongwith announcement of PLR, they should also announce the maximum spread under the PLR or all advances (other than consumer credit).
